

A SELECTION OF GOOGLE'S TRICKIEST BRAINTEASER QUESTIONS BASED ON GLASSDOOR	TERMS / EXPRESSIONS / GRAMMAR TO BE REMEMBERED
How many ways can you think of to find a needle in a haystack? — Business Associate, May 2014	to find a needle in a haystack (to find something very little in a much larger space)
Tell me a joke. — Executive Assistant Interview, March 2014	☺
Which do you think has more advertising potential in Boston, a flower shop or funeral home? — Account Strategist, October 2015	which do you think has ...
A coin was flipped 1000 times and there were 560 heads. Do you think the coin is biased? — Quantitative Analyst, September 2015	to flip coins → heads and tails (the two sides of a coin) biased = having an unfair preference for or dislike of sg
What would you want to do if you didn't have to work? — Interaction Designer, September 2014	what would you ... if you didn't have to...
If you could be remembered for one sentence, what would it be? — Associate Account Strategist Interview, March 2014	to be remembered for sg
What three things would you change at your university/work place if you were CEO today? — Account Strategist Interview, April 2014	CEO = Chief Executive Officer
How many cars travel across a bridge each day? — Advertising Interview, September 2014
If I gave you 10 million dollars right now, what would you do? — Associate Account Strategist, May 2014	If I gave ... what would you...
Do you prefer earning or learning? — Software Engineer, January 2016	to prefer earning or learning I prefer earning to learning (!)
How would you explain cloud computing to a 6 year old? — Software Engineer, January 2016	cloud computing = internet-based computing